Island salt, and then carefully packed with the same article, in pieces not exceeding eight pounds each.

When the packing has been completed, the contractor must furnish to this office a certificate from the packer that the pork has been so salted and packed. The pork is to be contained in seasoned heart of white oak barrels, full hooped; the beams and salt in barrels, and the soap and candles in strong boxes, of convenient size for transportation.

Salt will only be received by measurement of thirty-two quarts to the bushel. The candles to have cotton wicks. The provisions for St. Peter's and Fort Gaines must pass St. Peter's by the last June, 1860. A failure in this particular will be considered a breach of contract, and the Department will be authorized to purchase to supply these posts. The provisions will be inspected at the time and place of delivery, and all expenses to be paid by contractors until they are deposited at the time and place of delivery, and all expenses to be paid by contractors until they are deposited at such store-houses as may be designated by the agents of the Department. The Commissary General reserves the privilege of increasing or diminishing the quantities, or each delivery one-third subsequent to contract, and also of increasing or reducing the quantities, or each delivery one-third subsequent to contract, on giving sixty days' previous notice.

Bidders, not heretofore contractors, are required to accompany their proposals with evidence of their surcties, whose responsibility must be certified by the district attorney, or by some person well known to the Government; otherwise their proposals will not be acted on.

Advances cannot be made in any case, and evidence of their surcties, whose responsibility must be certified by the district attorney, or by some person well known to the Government; otherwise their proposals will not be acted on.

In case of failure on the part of the contractor to deliver all or any of the beef or pork above mentioned, of the quality, and at the times and places above provided, the contractor will forfeit and pay to the United States, as liquithis the best of all the American literary periodicals. Its contents are highly interesting, instructive, and smusing.'

The London Literary Gazette.—'The taste and talent which the Knickersocker displays are nighly creditable to American writers, and very agreeable for English readers.'

London Metropolitan Monthly Magazine.—
We have read several numbers of this talented periodical, and rejoiced in them. They would do credit to any country or to any state of civilization of the contracts, as sum of money equal to twice the actual delivery thereof; which liquidated damages may be recovered from time to time as they ages may be recovered from time to time as they ages may be recovered from time to time as they ages may be recovered from time to time as they ages may be recovered from time to time as they ages may be recovered from time to time as they ages may be recovered from time to time as they ages may be recovered from time to time as they ages may be recovered from time to time as they ages may be recovered from time to time as they ages may be recovered from time to time as they age Its contents are highly interesting, instructive, and presented to the navy agents respectively, only approved by the commandants of the respective navy yards, according to the terms of the contracts.

The parts of the best to be excluded will be particularly in the contracts.

LONDON ATHENERS.—From a very clever Monthly Magazine, "The Knickersocker." of New York, we copy the following spirited story, etc.

Sin Edward Belwer Lytton.—The Knickersocker is the best American periodical I have yet seen. I take pleasure in enclosing you an article which was penned expressly for your work."

Charles Dickens, esq.—I read the Knickersocker with very great pleasure: it is indeed a most various and entertaining periodical. It affords me pleasure to contribute to the pages of a work which numbers among its regular correspondents such writers as Mr. Irvino.—I have read a good many of the articles in the few numbers of the Knickersocker which you sent me, and find them to possess great merit. Some of its papers, it is true, were too light for my serious turn of mind; yet the whole appears well calculated to gratify the tastes of the mass of readers.

Capt. F. Marratt.—'You make an excellent Magazine—spirited, various, and original. I hope my 'Moonshine' will reflect no discredit upon the good company in which it will find itself.'

Agents wanted for the Knickerbocker Magazine.
